CHILLED SIX PACK TAKES GORDON MOBLEY FUTURITY

It was a dream trip from start to finish for Chilled Six Pack and rider Shanley Jackson. The duo took home the trophy in the $100,000 Gordon Mobley Futurity Final Saturday, Sept. 17 at Hoosier Park Racing & Casino.

Starting from post two in the 10-horse lineup, Chilled Six Pack broke from the gate sharply and immediately put his opponents at an advantage, grabbing the top spot on the inside. Jackson kept the two-year-old gelding on task all the way through the 350 yard dash and beat the field to the wire by one and one-half lengths in a time of :17.824 seconds. Stablemate Corona Kas and Victor Olivo rallied up in the final strides for second, one-half length ahead of Highway To Payoff and Aron Hunt for third.

“He (Chilled Six Pack) was a little nervous before we got in the gate, but once the gate opened, he took off,” said Jackson. “I smooched to him one time and he responded and dug in all the way to the finish line.”

Owned by Vickie and Raymond Duke, Chilled Six Pack is now two for two in his brief career, also winning his trial of the Mobley Futurity. The son Chilled Corona now has in excess of $66,000 in earnings for trainer John McCreary, who saddled both Chilled Six Pack and Corona Kas for the event. McCreary is currently tied for second in the leading Quarter Horse trainer standings with five wins this season.

“It’s an awesome feeling to win this stake today,” said McCreary. “I’d just like to thank all the owners for giving me the confidence to get here. I’ve also had some good jockeys that have tried their hardest for me. It’s been a great year.”

Attending the race for the trophy presentation was Gordon Mobley, a long-time supporter of Quarter Horse racing in the state of Indiana. Mobley was joined by all the connections of Chilled Six Pack for the second running of the event.

For Jackson, the win in the Mobley Futurity is his third $100,000 stakes win this year. The North Carolina native has been battling back and forth with two-time leading rider Harold Collins for the top spot this season. Jackson has seven wins through the first 19 days of Quarter Horse action this season. Jackson finished second in the standings last year and after three years of competition at Hoosier Park, he is already among the top 10 riders all time in the Quarter Horse ranks.

Lovemelikethat

$100,000 final, connecting with Chilled Six Pack in the Gordon Mobley Final Saturday, Sept. 17. Lovemelikethat will try to match her stablemate in the upcoming Bertram Final, which will be one of two $100,000 stakes on a day set aside for all Quarter Horse racing. Other Trial winners to advance to the Bertram Finals are Bitter Sweet Song (Rodney Prescott) and Katinizer (Juan Delgado).

Two divisions of trials competed for the ten spots to fill the $100,000 Hoosier Park Classic which will also be ran on Quarter Horse Day, October 8th. Eyes Got Hope, guided by Harold Collins, won the last of two trials by 1-1/2 lengths over Burrs Tictac (Shanley Jackson) to post the top qualifying time of 20.094 for the 400 yard dash. Eyes Got Hope is owned and trained by Gene Cox and bred by Circle S Ranch, Inc. The first of the two trials was won by Brimmerton Lane with Victor Olivo aboard. Brimmerton Lane is owned by Fransisco Ramos and trained by Raul Gonzalez.

FINALS SET FOR STERLIE BERTRAM AND HOOSIER PARK CLASSIC

Three divisions of trials were held Friday, Sept. 23 to determine the final field for the $100,000 Sterlie Bertram Memorial Final set for Quarter Horse Day Saturday, Oct. 8. Of the three trials, Lovemelikethat and Julie Veltman were the quickest to the wire, winning their event in a time of :17.717 seconds.

It appeared to be an easy task for Lovemelikethat, who began her journey from post seven. She left the gate alertly and in control of the race early, putting her opponents at her heels and charging under the wire two lengths ahead of the rest of the field. Stole N Loot and Aron Hunt rallied home second followed by Class Of Oh Eight and rider Shanley Jackson.

Owned by Cooter Daniel, Lovemelikethat is trained by John McCreary. McCreary has already saddled one winner in a
